FIFTEEN PERSONS HURT IN WRECK

C. & O. Fast Train Pulls in Two and Pullmans Turn Over on Embankment.

Fifteen people were injured, two of them so seriously that they may not recover, when C. & O. train No. 1, F. V. Limited, running from Newport News and Washington to Chicago, left the track at a point a quarter of a mile east of Barboursville, W. Va., at 6:47 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The most seriously injured are Joshua C. Carter, prominent Huntington business man, who sustained a fractured skull, and D. T. Thomas, of Woodstock, R. L., a sailor in the U. S. Navy, who was on the train in charge of a party of four men en route to the United States hospital in Colorado, to which they were being sent from the naval hospital at Portsmouth for treatment for tuberculosis. In either of these cases fatal results would not be surprising. None of the others in the list of injured is likely to die.

Terrible as it was the accident was remarkable in that it did not cause the death of a score or more passengers as three Pullmans, each well filled with passengers, left the track and turned over completely before they landed at the bottom of an 18-foot embankment. The day coach did not turn over, but both trucks left the rails, while only the rear truck of the combination car was derailed, the locomotive remaining in position.

The train was running on schedule time, or thereabouts, and was going at a rate of about 25 miles an hour, according to the judgment of engineer W. A. Freutel. East of Barboursville, rounding about a three degree curve, the cars jumped the track without warning. The engine went over the track on which the accident occurred without a sign of trouble. The cause of the accident is still undetermined.

E. T. Morris, contractor and former C. & O. engineer, is one of the injured. He is not seriously hurt.

Mr. Carter's condition is precarious and it is considered that he has no better than an even chance in his fight against death. He was in the smoking room of the Pullman on which he was returning from a trip from the east, where he had been buying goods when the blow fell. He had put on his overcoat, preparatory, doubtless, to getting off at Huntington, and had fallen on his head, striking it against some disk-like object which drove its way into his head, making a hole about the size of a nickel and leaving the bone pressing against the brain. Mr. Carter is president of the corporation of J. C. Carter & Company, the Huntington Wharf & Storage Company and has extensive banking and real estate interests in the city. He has been prominent in politics and in church circles, being a member of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church. He is a Shriner and a Scottish Rite Mason.

Another Huntington man who was injured was J. H. Blackwood, who sustained three broken ribs and a cut head. He was in the wash room and had just completed his morning toilet when the accident occurred.

There were frantic scenes about the train after the cars were derailed. The passengers were frightened greatly and their first thought was of the danger of fire. This was unfounded, for the cars were all "dead," and besides were of steel, affording little opportunity for fire. Frightened as they were, they did not cry out, but in almost an instant after they had righted themselves the uninjured and many of the slightly injured went frantically to work to get the others from beneath the wreckage, which was pinning them down, and seemed in many cases to be pressing the life out of them.

ARRESTED FOR ROBBING

VAN LEAR STORE.

On Saturday last a man named Jim Kelley was arrested in Catlettsburg and taken to Van Lear, charged with having broken into the store of the Consolidated Coal Co. at that place. He is said to have taken the cash register to the top of a hill and there broke it open and secured $500.

MOUNTAIN CLINIC BIG SUCCESS.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 23.—Dr. William S. Stucky and party of specialists from here who went to Hindman to dedicate the new hospital there and establish a free clinic, returned last evening much gratified at the success of the trip. More than 275 pupils and persons from outside the settlement school were examined and received medical attention, and fifteen operations performed by each of the physicians present. Persons came from miles around for examination by the physicians. The clinic received every assistance and co-operation from the physicians of Knott county, who met the party upon their arrival.

NEW ENGINEER FOR C. & O.

Jas. W. Gleason, a draftsman, now located at Louisa, doing some engineering work for the C. & O., has been appointed assistant to the chief engineer, with headquarters in Ashland. Mr. Gleason will assume his duties November 1 and will have headquarters in the C. & O. building, Ashland Independent.

MRS. MARY ELOISE HUGHES SMITH MARRIED

Huntington, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Eloise Hughes Smith, widow of the late P. Smith, who went on the Titanic, and Robert W. Smith, Philadelphia banker, were married in New York City last night, the ceremony being performed in the Little Church Around the Corner. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Daniel Hughes, of Westmoreland, Philadelphia, making known the beautiful widow, who is sister of Congressman and Mr. A. Hughes, of Westmoreland, Philadelphia, financier, by for many weeks, but the ways, denied and the bride, the slightest linking of the wedding had already place. The bride's termination of marriage of her marriage, Daniel, which occurred with two, were refugees aboard the Titanic, and the unusual facts of their wedding to be kept as the surprising interest of a story, so romantic and so unusual rival the strangest fiction.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hughes, a country place at Roseburg, of Philadelphia, where will be "at home" immediately.

GOOD SPEAKERS

All this week they have been having good crowds and will conclude their labors until Saturday night.

On Saturday, O'Neal will speak at Webbville, 10 a. m., and at Cherokee at 6 o'clock.

H. C. Sullivan, at Yatesville Thursday and will Saturday at 6 p. m. at Richards.

Joe Burton Killed by a Powder Explosion

Former Resident of once County Loses His Life.

Joe Burton, formerly of Brushy, this county, was killed last week when he was digging a well near his home at Lucasville. He had put in a powder charge placed a slow fuse in position (shot). The blast did not occur at time Mr. Burton thought it should go back to the hole he was looking to see what was the matter. He was in the fore-hole, receiving as from which he died on the following Saturday.

The body, accompanied by friends, arrived here Saturday the N. & W. and was taken Brushy for interment which was on Monday.

The deceased, 45 years old and survived by a wife and five children. He was a son of Thomas Burton.

REPORT OF DGS IN THE CAL OIL FIELD.

The well drilled on B. E. Diamond's place at Yatesville, has reached a depth about 1000 feet, but a cable broke Tuesday and the tools have not yet been recovered. This development is the Bera Oil & Gas Company.

The company operating near Cherokee for gas selling its second well. The first is a gas producer.

A well on West Virginia side of the river, twelve miles below Louisa, is almost down the Bera grit. The South Penn. company is drilling it.

The last drilled by the Busseyville company making about two and a half bars per day.

MISSIONARY INSTITUTE.

The Ashland District Missionary Institute of Methodist Episcopal Church South will be held at Louisa, Monday evening, Tuesday morning, afternoon and evening, Nov. 9th and 10th.

All the papers in the Ashland district are expected, and Rev. C. N. Coffman, Chairman of the Conference Board of Missions, of Clendenen, W. Va., Mr. W. J. Smith, Conference Leader, of Ickersburg, W. Va., Rev. J. C. Messers, of Kentucky Conference, and Mrs. H. Bowman, Conference Secretary, of the Woman's Missionary Society, of Huntington, W. Va., will be present.

Rev. L. W. Darlington, Presiding Elder of the Ashland District, will have charge of the program.

Everybody cordially invited to attend each of 12 sessions.

B. M. KEITH, Pastor.

ENTERTAINED AT ROOK.

Mrs. J. J. Gearlach entertained on last Monday evening at the Hotel Savoy in honor of her nieces, Misses Iva and Erma Lake, of Huntington, W. Va. The evening was delightfully spent playing Rook. A delicious salad course was served to the following: Misses Marie Sullivan, Lucile W. Dixon, Eva Messers, Goff Maynard, Jim Messers and Frank Kinsler, of Ft. Wayne, Ind.; M. Lettwich, of Richmond; Gilbert Staley, of Huntington; William, Mrs. Ella Sullivan and Mrs. Gearlach.

THE COUNTY AGENT AND THE FARMER.

The summer is past and the harvest is ended, but this has not caused County Agricultural Agent Kegley to cease his labors among the farmers. He is, if possible, more active and persistent than ever—active in going over the county, here, there and everywhere, and persistent in trying to get the tillers of the soil to look at things agricultural through the trained optics of the demonstrator.

The NEWS has talked with more than one farmer of Lawrence county concerning Mr. Kegley's work since coming here as County Agent, and it has yet to see one who speaks disparagingly of Mr. Kegley's work. He has, of course, met some opposition, which is the common fate of those who endeavor to get people to do things in a way which is different from that which they and their ancestors have done for hundreds of years, but time has already shown to most of these who did not like the new-fangled ways of sowing and planting and reaping that the ways of the practical, school, book-taught agriculturalist is infinitely better than the old slipshod ways of the former day.

Mr. Kegley is much gratified by the interest shown by the many who attend his school house meetings and who listened attentively and question so intelligently. He speaks particularly of the fine meeting which was held at Yatesville on Wednesday night of last week. A large crowd was present and it and the demonstrator had a practical, helpful talk about things which are of benefit to all who get their living from good old Mother Earth.

Mr. Kegley finds an increasing interest in the people concerning Pig Clubs, Corn Clubs and Canning Clubs. While none of the latter kind has been organized there are more than one person who have canning outfits. Notably among those who are doing well in the work of canning is Miss Marie Roberts, of Cadmus. She is a young girl of 17, but she bought a modern outfit, a standard make, and has become expert in putting up all sorts of fruits and vegetables. It requires some work, certainly, but unless you put them up now you cannot put them "down" later.

The NEWS will mention the fact now and elaborate it after awhile that a movement is started to form a number of girls' canning clubs, with a competent director, for the purpose of teaching the business in a practical, profitable way. The NEWS believes the idea will assume concrete form and rebound to the good of all concerned.

The County Agent reports a good corn crop despite the unfavorable outlook during the long dry spell. The best corn he saw was the result of fall plowing. All who sowed rye this fall have shown wisdom. They have nothing to lose and much to gain.

Mr. Kegley lays much stress upon the value of limestone, and wants all who desire to use it now to communicate with him at once.

BLACK LEG IN CATTLE.

The NEWS has learned of the prevalence of black leg in the Webbville part of the county. It is a fatal disease, there being no cure for it when it has been contracted. The carcasses should be buried to prevent the spread of the disease, as it is highly contagious. That is, if they are not burned other animals may get it from the germs spread from the dead body after it has rotted and gone into the soil.

Its spread can be prevented by vaccination with a virus or vaccine which can be secured free upon application to Mr. Kegley, County Agent, or make application to him at Louisa on any Saturday. On other days he is elsewhere in the county.

Our farmers and stock men should at once pay attention to this very important matter.

SLAYER IS CONVICTED.

Grayson, Ky., Oct. 27.—In the Carter Circuit Court here today Morton Reeves was convicted of having killed Willis Green, and was sentenced to a term of from two to twenty-one years. Reeves shot Green seven weeks ago and escaped to Amorita, Texas, where he was arrested. Reeves was on parole from the Kentucky Reform School.

Wm. Marshall Bullitt Cancels Louisa Date

Republican Candidate Had Conflict in Appointments and Goes Elsewhere.

Wm. Marshall Bullitt, Republican candidate for United States Senator, has been rather extensively advertised to speak at Louisa on Saturday of this week, but the appointment was canceled on Thursday.

It seems that he was expected to speak at another point on Saturday and the speaker's bureau called up local Republicans and told them Mr. Bullitt could be used probably to more advantage elsewhere and stated that this would be done.

The NEWS has been requested to make a statement about the cancellation of this appointment.

HAPPY HOMES!

On Friday and Saturday, November 6 and 7, Mr. George Lear, of the firm of Brant & Lear, importers and makers of Cloaks, Dresses and Furs, will be at Mr. Shannon's store. He will bring with him the very latest style developments. Come and see this collection of individual costumes by the greatest Paris dressmakers.

HEAVY ORDERS NOW COMING IN

Europe Has Begun to buy Large Quantities of Goods in the United States.

The following articles are taken from the Cincinnati Enquirer, which reluctantly publishes such facts. The Enquirer always fights the Democratic administration, but is unusually bitter this year.

New York, Oct. 27.—That well-known veil of secrecy now being lifted is revealing that the war orders which have been coming into this country are reaching stupendous figures. There has been an increase of exports, to be sure, but before long the figures will show a movement in American made goods which will be startling.

It is estimated by one well-known financial authority, on the basis of accounts with foreign agents in several of the large banks, that orders have been given for American goods within the last month which amount to at least $200,000,000. It has in the last week or so been nothing unusual with banks, having large foreign connections, to pay out $2,000,000 or $3,000,000 a day on behalf of various hustling commissionaires.

Most of the goods are going to neutral ports, of course, but there are numerous evidences as to what their ultimate destination is. How complex are the wants of even peoples at war are well illustrated by the invoices of merchandise which are being from time to time consigned to Sweden, to Italy, to Holland, to England and to Russia. Spot cash is the rule for these transactions and after the goods are on shipboard this country ceases to worry about them. They have been paid for and the new owner does the worrying.

Figures given out today at the Custom House revealed that exports from New York last week represented $21,397,327, the greatest value for any week since March 21, and nearly 20 per cent in excess of shipments a year ago. Only four times this year have exports added more to the commercial credits of the country than last week. As yesterday's exports reached the new high record figure of $6,183,812, the final week of the month promises to establish another record. One reason for the big shipment was that more ships were to be had than previously.

New York, Oct. 27.—The distinctly more cheerful sentiment which spread throughout financial circles yesterday continued to prevail today. With the election out of the way, however, it is believed that the optimistic sentiment that has been growing stronger and brighter will be converted into activity in the local market.

One of the best indications of the improving situation is the German demand for cotton. It was reported today that several hundred thousand bales had been purchased for that country in the United States. At $35 a bale the cost will approximate $7,000,000. In substantiation of these reports a Galveston dispatch said the German steamer Rhinefeldt will sail from there for Bremen next month with 10,000 bales. Nearly 10,000 bales were exported today from Savannah for Copenhagen.

Lowell, Mass., Oct. 27.—Reports indicate that a number of mills in this city already feel the effects of an increased demand traceable to the war in Europe. The Stirling Mills are running at full capacity, being said to have sold their entire output of broad-cloths up to February. A number of looms have been running during the night at the plant of the Talbot Mills, North Billerica, and the outlook is said to be bright.

62,500 Horses for Allies.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 27.—J. F. Ryan, of Montreal, a representative of the Canadian Bureau of Horse Breeding, which has a contract to furnish the allied forces now fighting in Europe 62,500 horses, amounting to more than $12,625,000, was here today to make arrangements for the shipment of more than 7,000 horses from this port in the next few weeks. The horses will be shipped on seven vessels that have already been chartered, and which will come very shortly here and wait for their cargoes. The horses will be sent here from the Middle West. The ships will carry from 950 to 1,050 horses each, but their destination will not be made public until the clearance papers have been issued.

Said Mr. Ryan: "The Canadian Bureau of Horse Breeding has an exclusive contract in this country and Canada for furnishing horses to the allied forces. All available ships that can be gotten hold of are being chartered for 15 months, and will be required to make five round trips. The Bureau of Breeding will receive on an average of $250 a horse landed on the other side. The bureau has for some time been furnishing horses for military purposes to the British Government. The Eastern, Southern and Middle Western sections of the United States will furnish more horses than the far West, because the horses in these sections are broken and ready for use as soon as landed in Europe. Texas could furnish twice as many horses if horses in that state were saddle and bridle broken."

"The bureau has taken systematic steps to secure the horses which they have contracted to deliver to the allied forces. The entire United States and Canada has been mapped and the country divided into sections."

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION AT LEXINGTON.

The Kentucky State Sunday School Association held a most interesting meeting in Lexington last week. It was numerously attended and was addressed by Sunday School workers, both men and women, of state and national renown. Subjects of vital importance to the cause were ably discussed, and interesting reports were made by workers in various fields.

Mr. W. J. Vaughan, of this place, reported as field worker. The NEWS finds the following in a Lexington paper:

"In all," said Mr. Vaughan, speaking of the work he has done in these ten years, "I have traveled 104,500 miles, enough to have taken me nearly four and one-half times around the world. I have visited 115 of our 120 counties, attended the World's Convention, at Washington, D. C., International Conventions at Toronto, Louisville, San Francisco and Chicago. I have taken part in 320 county conventions, 981 institutes and rallies, and have visited and briefly addressed 648 Sunday Schools. A conservative estimate makes the number of people publicly addressed and privately interviewed not less than 120,000. How great the privilege, and greater still has been the responsibility."

Mr. Vaughan then dwelt upon the difficulties of his work and continuing:

"Eight years ago I made a careful study of the entire mountain section of the State and found five counties in one block with a population of more than 50,000, and only 1,500 in Sunday School. In eighteen counties there were 175 Sunday Schools, or one to thirty-eight square miles. The same counties now have 350 schools, or one to nineteen square miles and the enrollment is four fold greater. The Sunday School idea is growing and the opposition is yielding to the pressure."

Suit Filed to Test the Road Working Law

Lawrence County's Application for Convicts is the Basis

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 22.—Suit to test the right of the State Board of Prison Commissioners to employ convicts on roads, declared to be State highways under the act of 1914, was filed in the Franklin Circuit Court by the State Board of Prison Commissioners against Warden A. J. G. Wells, of the State Reformatory. The suit, which was prepared by Assistant Attorney General M. M. Logan, is for a mandatory injunction requiring the warden to execute an order of the board to detail twenty convicts under guard to work on road construction in Lawrence county. The warden, while expressing approval of the project, said he would not send the prisoners without an order of the court, as doubt had been expressed as to his right to do so.

The petition recites that the session of 1914 enacted a law creating a system of State highways over approved routes connecting county seats and declared them to be public works. The Constitution requires that prisoners be worked inside the prison walls, except when an epidemic or fire makes this impossible or they are employed on public works. As the State-aid law creates the Department of Public Roads and provides a State fund for the construction of highways, and the system of State highways is declared to be public works, the Commissioners take the view that the plain intention of the General Assembly was to provide for working convicts on the public roads.

This view is upheld by the courts, the Prison Commissioners will adopt a system for hiring the convicts to the counties, and by next spring when the road-working season opens, they will give the plan a thorough tryout. The first of this month, as the petition recites, the Fiscal Court of Lawrence county made demand on the State Board of Prison Commissioners for twenty able-bodied male prisoners confined in the Frankfort Reformatory, and requested that this number be detailed to the said Lawrence county under proper guard to be worked on a public road, which road comes under the provisions of the act of 1914 as a public State highway and public works of the Commonwealth; that after having given due consideration to the request made by the Fiscal Court of Lawrence county, and after having given due consideration to the terms and conditions, the said board entered an order directing the warden to send twenty able-bodied male prisoners to be worked upon said road. He refused to comply with the directions of the board on the ground that in his opinion he had no right to work prisoners on the public roads."

BROBECK WITH A. C. & I.

N. G. Brobeck, trainmaster on the Big Sandy division of the C. & O., has resigned his position to become superintendent of the A. C. & I., a newly created position.

REGARDING THE DEATH OF MRS. MARTHA FERGUSON.

The editor of the NEWS has received the following personal letter from Mr. L. B. Ferguson regarding the death of his mother:

"Williamsburg, Va., Oct. 17.—With a sorrowful heart I have to tell you of the death of my mother last Monday, October 12, at the home of my sister, Mrs. L. H. Suddith, Gwynns Island, Mathews county, Virginia. She had been in failing health for a year but had not been confined to her bed but a few weeks before her death. Had she lived until today she would have been 77 years old. As you know, my sister and myself are her only surviving children. She has 9 grand-children and 3 great grand-children. Since leaving Louisa she has made her home with my sister. She was a member of the Baptist Church and of late years had taken an active part in the work of the church. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. J. B. France, of that church, and the remains were interred in a vault in Gwynns Island cemetery. Later they will be removed to Fairview, just back of Cassville, and buried beside my father. As to her life in Kentucky you already know.

"Kindly remember me to my old friends. With best wishes, I am, Yours sincerely, L. B. FERGUSON."

LOUISA BAPTIST CHURCH.

The pastor, the Rev. Ous Hamilton, has returned after holding a successful meeting at Grahm, Ky. He filled his pulpit at both services on Sunday last. At the close of the night service a business meeting of the church was held at which it was unanimously voted to continue Mr. Hamilton as pastor, at an increased salary, he having already served two years very acceptably.

On next Sunday Mr. Hamilton's morning subject will be "The Mission of the Church." The evening subject will be "Sin, Its Extent and Evil."

HER TENTH ANNIVERSARY.

On Tuesday last, October 27th, Miss Emily Conley reached the mature age of ten years. She invited nearly two score of her young friends to assist her in the proper observance of such an auspicious event. Their presence and good wishes and the many good things to eat combined to make the occasion a very pleasant one. The tokens of remembrance ranged in kind from pictures to ponies and were as numerous as they were varied.

IMPROVE COAL LANDS.

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 28.—The Big Bend Coal Co. has let a contract for construction of two and one-half miles of railroad around the Hatfield curve near Matewan, McDowell county. Ryan & Company, of Lexington, Ky., secured the contract. It is reported that the Steel corporation is back of the movement to improve coal properties in that vicinity under the direction of General Edward O'Toole, of Gary.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE.

While attempting to board a mis-timed train near the Johnstown, Pa., station, a man was killed and another narrowly escaped. The man who was killed was from Louisa, where he took No. 1 to come home. He had been working on the new bridge and was going to work when the freight came along. He was not able to work for several days. Dr. Bussey dressed the foot.

PIKE PRISONER PAROLED.

Among the many who were paroled by the Board of Prison Commissioners last week was Tilt Hall, from Pike county, who had served four and one-half years for manslaughter.

Lackey Property Bought by the Callahan School

Attractive Grounds Just Below
Purchased for Methodist School

The deal for the purchase of the Jas. Q. Lackey property by the Callahan Methodist School was closed this week by the formal transfer of the house and grounds to the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The transfer does not include any of the land west of the C. & O. railway, neither does it embrace the land east of the gully which is between the residence and county road near the U. S. engineer office. The cash price paid for the property by the Board of Education is $5,000.

It is said that Mr. Lackey will vacate in a short time and that the school, which is now taught in the Masonic Hall, will at once be moved to the recent acquisition, where it will be conducted as now by Mr. J. B. McClure. It is said that as soon as some necessary changes are completed, several boarding pupils will be received into the school.

Mr. Lackey and family will occupy what is known as the Pierce property near the home of Thomas I.

RUB RHEUMATIC PAIN FROM ACHING JOINTS

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism.

It's pain only, not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain and distress.

"St. Jacob's Oil" is a harmless rheumatism liniment which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache and neuralgia.

Lambs up! Get a small trial bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment, you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

ECLA.

Immediate? Yes! Certain?—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt, or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

H. C. SULLIVAN FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY.

We are authorized to announce H. C. SULLIVAN, of Lawrence county, as a candidate for the nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney for the 32nd Judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

G. W. CASTLE FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY.

G. W. Castle, of Lawrence county, announces his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney for the 32nd Judicial District, primary election in August 1915, earnestly requesting the support of all Democrats of the district.

We are authorized to announce JOHN M. WAUGH as a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney of the 32nd Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party in the primary of August, 1915.

We are authorized to announce W. D. O'NEAL, JR., as a candidate for the nomination for Circuit Judge of the 32nd Judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce JUDGE M. M. REDWINE as a candidate for Circuit Judge of the district composed of Lawrence, Elliott, Carter and Morgan counties, subject to the action of the Democrats in the primary election the first Saturday in August, 1915.

Remember the election on next Tuesday, Nov. 3rd.

Thos. A. Edison, the great inventor, predicts great prosperity for American industry at the close of hostilities in Europe.

It is charged that many Republican plants throughout the country are being closed for effect on the voters at the election next week.

Lieut. Gov. Cox drew $5,000 from the State treasury for serving as Governor while Augustus Willson was out of the State which shows that Gus spent nearly one year out of four away from his duties at Frankfort.

The Peace Policy of the President would allow entire him to the support of every Democrat that loves his country. A vote for Governor Beckham and Senator Camden is as direct an endorsement of Woodrow Wilson as if the President himself had been voted for.

The Anti-Saloon League of Kentucky has sent out a letter to the ministers of Kentucky stating that the liquor interests are lined up behind Gus Willson for the United States Senate as against Beckham. They call temperance people to rally to the support of Mr. Beckham.

The Democratic party presents for the suffrage of the people of Kentucky and this district this fall three men who are worthy and well qualified for the places for which they stand. J. C. W. Beckham for the long term for the Senate, Johnson N. Camden for the short term, and Wm. J. Fields for Congress. They stand head and shoulders above their Republican opponents and will be elected by a large majority.

Judge O'Rear, who was the Republican nominee for Governor three years ago, has openly denounced Gus Willson, the Republican nominee for the Senate as unworthy of the support of any honest Republican. He has refused to take the stump for Willson and he is privately informing his Republican and Progressive friends that their most sacred duty to their party and state is to retire Willson to private life forever.

If you are in favor of the Peace Policy of President Wilson which has put the United States first in the vanguard of nations, vote for Governor Beckham and Senator for the United States Senate, and W. J. Fields for Congress, because when they get to Washington they will support the President. Without a Democratic majority in the Senate, President Wilson would have all his plans blocked by Republicans who are doing their utmost to embarrass him and wreck his administration.

While the republicans and progressives are dividing the republican vote and the election of the Democratic nominees seem certain, it will not do to take anything for granted in a political contest. The republicans as a rule vote early and often and it behooves the Democratic voters to go to the polls and cast their votes for the nominees. That is the only way to make victory sure. More political battles are lost by over-confidence than from any other cause.

F. Tom Hatcher is making a warm fight for Congress in the Tenth district and has a good chance to win.

After nineteen months of continuous session, Congress adjourned last Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The cotton Senators abandoned the fight for legislation at this session to aid the Southern planters.

L. K. Vinson, the Democratic nominee for State Senate in the district just across the river from this county, has made a thorough canvass of the district and feels confident of winning. He has always been active in politics and this is the first race he has made. Lafayette has many friends both inside and outside of the party who will be glad to see him win.

Congressman W. J. Fields has served the people of his district as faithfully as any member of the Lower House of Congress. He is sober, honest, earnest, and right on the job all the time. He has voted for all the good laws enacted and against all the bad ones offered. He was the author of one of the most important sections of the new currency laws. Vote for him next Tuesday.

Governor McCreary made a splendid speech for the Democratic nominees at the opening at Somerset and he will be heard on the stump the last week of the campaign in behalf of the whole ticket. The Governor has never lost his hold on the Democratic masses. They have always found him honest, able and courageous. His prompt and hearty support of Governor Beckham proves that he never lets personal or political difference interfere with his duty to his party.

Governor Beckham has shown himself to be a great campaigner. Although he has been on the stump continually for nearly six months in the primary contest, after a few weeks rest he began his campaign as democratic nominee for the Senate and has never missed a day or an hour. He is in the very prime of life with his physical and intellectual powers unimpaired. His whole life has been devoted to the study of public questions and he will take his seat in the Senate thoroughly equipped for its important duties. The Democrats of Kentucky not only honor Governor Beckham, but they have a deep affection for him.

Secretary of State Bryan's visit to Kentucky has served to arouse the state democracy to the importance of the November election. He has made it very clear that praise of President Wilson's policies counts for nothing unless the voters who commend him go to the polls and vote for the democratic candidates in the Senate and in the House who will continue to vote with the President. This is not a one-man government, although Woodrow Wilson has the ability to run it single handed. He must have democratic majorities in both Houses or the great work that he has undertaken for the reform of the currency and the revival of business will prove a failure.

"Disgust-us" E. Willson, Republican nominee for the United States Senate, is advertised elsewhere in this issue to speak in Hopkinsville next Monday, and an appeal is made to the people of Trigg county to hear him. In view of his many utterances in the past in regard to the farmers and tobacco growers of Western Kentucky, and the further fact that he is the "henchman and candidate" of the Tobacco Trust and Whiskey Trust, according to C. M. Barnett, a life-long Republican, he certainly has his nerve to ask the farmers and business people of this or any other county to hear him upon any subject. The people of Trigg county will show you "Uncle Gus" how much they think of you on the third of next month—about 400 majority for Beckham.—Cadiz Record.

In 1907, with the high tariff laws in full force for ten years and every department of the government in the hands of Republicans, the United States had one of the worst panics ever known. The new currency system just now being established by the Democratic administration makes money panics impossible. Unfortunately the greatest world war ever known broke out just when this and the new tariff laws were going into effect. Unfair politicians try to make the common people believe the entire disturbance is due to the new laws. If they thought it would get them any votes they would claim the European war is a protest against Democratic reforms. Every fair-minded voter, whether Democrat or Republican, wants to see these new laws given a fair test. If they prove to be better than the old laws, what good citizen would refuse to endorse them? We all want to know by actual trial what is best for our country. It requires a reasonable amount of time even under normal conditions to test any law of real importance and far-reaching effect. The tariff and income tax laws are entitled to a fair trial and the voter who allows a calamity howling, professional politician to induce him to vote otherwise is being played for a sucker.

"Thank God for Woodrow Wilson."

In the face of the fiercest detraction, President Wilson brought about peace in Mexico. He refused to declare war against the unfortunate people of that country, although the capitalists who had exploited Mexico and the republican leaders in and out of Congress, denounced him as cowardly incapable. His wise policy of "watchful waiting" was condemned by a partisan press. But the President bided his time, conscious of the humanity which dictated his course, would meet with the approval of the people.

With Europe an Inferno, hundreds of thousands dead and dying, homes desolated and innocent women and children despoiled, the United States is at peace with the world, a haven for the oppressed of all lands. When the first of war abates President Wilson will be the arbiter to whom the warring countries can turn and he will deal justly. He has already tendered peace for Woodrow Wilson.

It comes from the grateful people of the world who are weary of the horrors of war and who realize that this nation is indebted to him for the blessings of peace.

It must not be forgotten that the President is on trial in the November election. He has appealed to his party to give him a democratic House and Senate, without whose support he would be bound hand and foot. He has given a hearty personal endorsement to Governor Beckham and Senator Camden and the democratic nominees for Congress. A vote against any one of them will be a vote against him.

Senator Johnson N. Camden made his first speech of the campaign at his home town, Versailles.

Speaking of the honor he felt it was to represent Kentucky in the Federal Senate Senator Camden said:

"While I cannot claim the honor of being a native of Kentucky, I do claim to know a good thing when I see it, and I came here soon after attaining my majority as soon as I was authorized to act for myself. You will observe that to me being a Kentuckian is a matter of selection and choice, while you native really deserve no credit, as you had no say whatever, but were just born here and couldn't help yourselves."

"I heard some objection to my candidacy because I was not a native Kentuckian, but to my mind a State which has furnished to the other States of the Union 109 of their Governors and which has at the present time four native Kentuckians in the United States Senate representing other States, and claims as her sons the Speaker and the leader of the lower house of Congress, should be generous enough not to raise her voice against one who came as soon as he could, who expects to live and die and be buried here—surely this should be sufficient proof of his adoption and devotion."

BRYAN IN KENTUCKY.

Lexington, Ky.—William J. Bryan's speeches at Cincinnati, Paris, Lexington, Frankfort, Louisville and other points in Central Kentucky have put the Democracy of the commonwealth into an ecstasy of joy, and there is great jubilation among the party leaders. Mr. Bryan told the voters, who in large numbers at each point on the wet and dreary day disregarded the dampness that they might drink in his discourse, that Beckham and Camden and the Congressional nominees are wanted at Washington to uphold the hands of President Wilson, and he very clearly stated a number of reasons why every man who believes in and is for Woodrow Wilson should vote for these men at the election on November 3.

Mr. Bryan's presentation of the administration's achievements was forceful and very effective. Especially so was his handling of currency matters. He recalled that when the panic of 1907 came on, Wall street was in control of the nation's finance, and he recounted the issuance of clearing house script and its attending loss to the people. He pictured the transfer of the center of finance from Wall street to Washington under the Wilson administration and the prevention of a panic by the Secretary of the Treasury after a visit to the White House. He asked that all who were satisfied with the new currency system hold up their hands. It seemed as if every hand went up. He asked that those who desired to return to the old system of Wall street control hold up their hands, and no hand was seen to go up.

REV. J. C. KAZEE.

The following article from the Tampa Morning Tribune, Florida, referring to a Lawrence county man, born and reared on Georges Creek. Eight years ago he took charge of a church in Ohio, and last year a call to the Tampa church was accepted. Home people will be delighted to hear of his success. "The series of Sunday afternoon meetings for men will be brought to a close for the summer with a special prepared program of song and sermon tomorrow at the Young Men's Christian Association."

"The address will be delivered by Rev. J. C. Kaze, the able pastor of the Sixth avenue Baptist church, whose subject will be 'The Potter and the Clay.'"

Since taking charge of the Sixth avenue church last November, Rev. Kaze has come to be recognized as one of the able preachers and leaders among the religious forces in this city. More than twenty have been added to the membership of his church, a new and much better building has been secured and the old building has been moved and remodeled at a cost of about $2,000 since he took charge of the work.

For five years he was the traveling representative of the American Tract society throughout Kentucky and Virginia, and immediately before coming to this state he had completed a pastorate of five years in the Toledo conference in Ohio. He is an able and interesting speaker, and his message to the men at the Y. M. C. A. is sure to attract a good hearing.

WELL DESERVED.

The Praise That Comes From Thankful Louisiana People.

One kidney remedy has known merit.

Louisiana people rely upon it.

That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills.

Louisiana testimony proves it reliable. A. Wellman, butcher, Main Cross St., Louisiana, says: "My kidneys gave me great annoyance for years. The action was irregular and the kidney secretions were unnatural. I also had backaches. Different medicines I used gave me no benefit until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. In a short time I began to feel better and before long I was strong and well. Doan's Kidney Pills are the finest kidney pills I ever used and I never tire of praising them."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Wellman had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

NEW BED COVERS.

Choose One of the Dainty New Creations of Cretonne or Dimity.

Very charming are the bed covers made of plain rep or cotton taffeta upon which are appliqued garlands of flowers cut from cretonnes or cretonnes.

Such a spread was shown in a lavender and gray room. The bed itself was of gray enameled wood, embellished with a narrow white line.

The bed cover was of pale gray rep the color of the bed, upon which was appliqued lavender cretonne flowers. This same cretonne appeared again as window hangings.

The cotton spreads may be had in cream, tan, dull blues or any other neutral tint which can be made to tone in with any color scheme. They are quite expensive when made by an upholsterer or bought from a decorator, but any woman who is clever with her needle could make one.

Dimity dimity bed covers are also shown, either in plain white or cream or with narrow stripes in color. They are made long enough to tuck under the sides of the bed, the two sides at the bottom being split to allow the corners to lie flat.

With very sheer material a deep flounce sometimes appears. On wooden beds the cover merely touches the wooden sides. When a roll or bolster is used, slipping pillows are tucked away out of sight during the day and are only placed upon the bed at night.

It is almost a necessity to have a couch in one's bedroom, for a bed to remain immaculate should never be used for lounging or resting on during the day. No guest room should be without such a convenience.

A Season of Colors.

You can buy wigs dyed to match any sample of material you may take to the dyer and wig seller. You may buy stockings dyed within twenty-four hours to match exactly a frock or slippers of a most unearthly hue. And now you can have smelling salts made to match any samples you take to the chemist who puts up smelling salts. They may be colored yellow to match the odd shade of the hangings in your bedroom or boudoir, or a strange shade of lavender to match your Japanese crane negligee, or a queer green to match one of the new shades you have chosen for your summer suit.

Plant Lavender Seeds.

Those who like sachets of dried lavender in their linen closets and bureau drawers may raise all of the delicate flowers they can use by planting the seeds in a shallow box filled with finely sifted soil. When the tiny plants are a few inches high transplant them in small flowerpots and when the ground is warm set them out of doors. Two or three plants will yield all the lavender one will be likely to use.

BEARD TO DIE SOON.

A WORD TO THE TRAPPERS AND HUNTERS

Don't kill the light fur animals till December. Then pelts will begin to be good. Then sell them to us; we are the largest dealers in Furs and Hides in Eastern Kentucky.

We only have 4 grades—No. 1, 2, 3, 4. Many houses have 12 grades. We give 50 per cent more than any shipper can get in bunch lots of $500 or more. We ship direct to London sales, this knocks out the middle man profit. Write us for price list on furs. In four seasons we gladly answer. Send your pelts by parcel post. We pay the expense. We return your money on the day we receive them.

We want veal calf hides, green, No. 1, 15 pounds. No. 1 Horse Hides $4.50, No. 2, $1.50 to $2.50. We buy corn; we pay 50c bushel in groceries.

We pay 50c lb. for fat heifers, half cash and half store. We pay cash for eggs. We buy the coffee that grows high in top of the trees, where bugs and germs of fever can't get in. We sell 5000 pounds every year of this good old reliable grandpa and grand-mama coffee. There are about 14 different grades of coffee. We value the right kind. Give us a call. We give full weight and measure.

THE HOME CIRCLE AND ITS INTERESTS.

Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join The Home Circle at Evening Tide.

TO THE CHILDREN OF AMERICA.

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me." St. Matthew, xxv-40.

One of Chicago's greatest papers, The Herald, is to be commended for starting the ball to rolling which will gather up the most useful, most needed and most sensible Christmas gifts which have ever been distributed since Santa Claus began to make his annual visit to the children of men. As this is of interest to every home we feel that the Home Circle Column could not be put to better use this week than in giving a description of the enterprise as it appears in the Chicago Herald, the paper which originated the scheme and is now carrying it out to a successful ending. It says:

"When daddy goes to work each morning you meet him to come home at night. You would be very sad if he did not, wouldn't you?"

Over in Europe, where kings rule, millions of fathers are being sent to work by the kings—the work of war. The kings tell them to go and fight and they have to go even if there is no one left at home to earn money to buy food and clothes and pay the rent. Hundreds of thousands of fathers will never come home to their little boys and girls. They will be killed by the fathers of other little boys and girls, who do not really hate them, but who kill because they have been ordered to do so.

"YOU will have a Merry Christmas. YOU are looking forward to the day when Christ was born. YOU know that father and mother will be with you on Christmas day. YOU know that Santa Claus will come from the frozen north, his sleigh laden with gifts for you."

"Have you stopped to think what is going to happen on Christmas day to the children of Europe whose Santa Claus fell dead on the battlefield when father dropped with a bullet in his heart—the father whose kiss and cheery 'Up laddy boots, Kris Kringle has been here!' once awoke them on their birthday?"

"For these bereaved children there will be no Kris Kringle. His sleigh bells will not jingle on the frosty air in the Black Forest, and be untold by the good saint's galloping reindeer. Stockings will hang limp and empty in many a French cottage and the smoky chimney of England will know him not. No call for little Jane and no red mittens for Brother John. No soldiers all red and shining, that Karl had hoped for! Oh, what a mockery at this Christmas!"

"Let each little boy and each little girl be a Kris Kringle. Isn't that a fine thought? Wouldn't you love to be that great saint? Wouldn't you love to put your gifts in a sleigh and take the reins in your hands and drive the reindeer over the roofs of the houses, slipping down the chimney and leaving YOUR gifts for those who badly need them?"

"Can you do it? Of course you can. You can help load the sleigh and you can shut your eyes and feel the reins in your fingers and drive the reindeer up and down the lanes in England, lined with thatched-roof cottages, thru the vineyards of France and the stubble fields of Belgium, across the whitemantled stretches of Russia, up and down the highways of Germany, over the hills of Austria and along the frozen Danube to the Serbian peasant's hut, stopping to leave a surprise—catch-the-breath—surprise—for your little brother and sister whose father is dead.

"You may live to be a hundred years old, you may travel all over the world and see wonders and delights, but never will you have such a journey as that."

"How can you do all this?" "Just in the easiest kind of way, but you've got to do it yourself to get the real joy of it. Earn money to buy the presents or make them yourself. Every boy knows how to earn money so he may go to the circus. Ask father to let you split the kindling, carry in the coal, carry out the ashes, look after the furnace—and make him pay you for it. Save the pennies that are given you for candy. Deny yourself something."

"If you are a girl couldn't you knit a pair of gloves or socks or comforters? Wouldn't it be good to know that the gloves are keeping warm a pair of little hands like yours? Wouldn't it be fine to know that the comforters are covering frosty ears and protecting delicate throats?"

"And you must have some toys that have outgrown their charm for you. Send them. Then there is another thing you can do. Ask father and mother to beg Santa Claus to give to a boy or girl in Europe one of the gifts that is intended for you."

"Yes, I hear you say, 'I will be Santa Claus to those poor little orphan children.' And then you ask: 'But how can my gift reach the child that needs it? By the train and by the boat and by the train again. And then you say again: 'But the papers say that England ships and French ships and German ships all armed with cannon, will stop the boat carrying MY gift.'"

"They will not. 'England and French and Germany intend to salute the boat that is carrying your gift—not to stop it. Your ship will be a ship of Good Will. It will be Santa Claus' ship. And all the countries at war will dip their flags to it as such."

"All you have to do is to provide the gifts. The Chicago Herald will look after all other details. It will answer your questions. Write to the Christmas Ship Editor for help. It will see that your gift reaches the boat that will take it to Europe. It will see that your gift is put into hands which will place it in the fatherless home on Christmas morning. And it will tell every day all about what other boys and girls in our country are doing in this work of love."

"Just think what a brave sight the ship will make that carries your gift to Europe! Can't you picture it laden with thousands upon thousands of presents from the children of America? It will be offered and manned by fathers of little boys and girls who make every care that of $40 per month the countries which have upon fees and a want of war. Collecting taxes."

"Everybody who tries to have one day what it is; for it will be one efficient night will be your flag, the beautiful stars and stripes."

"The other too, R. Moore are now in will be a white flag, having been called face will be a sinking incident which befell 'Star of Hope.' Dr. Farley, the doctor, will be the one home after a visit when he fell and sustaining the Bill of one of his legs. He word begins."

Suffered Twenty-One Years-- Finally Found Relief

Having suffered for twenty-one years with a pain in my side, I finally have found relief in Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. Injections of morphine were my only relief for short periods of time. I became so sick that I had to undergo a surgical operation in New Orleans, which benefited me for two years. When the same pain came back one day I was so sick that I gave up hopes of living. A friend advised me to try your Swamp-Root and I at once commenced using it. The first bottle did me so much good that I purchased two more bottles. I am now on my second bottle and am feeling like a new woman. I passed a gravel stone as large as a big red bean and several small ones. I have not had the least feeling of pain since taking your Swamp-Root and I feel it my duty to recommend this great medicine to all suffering humanity. Gratefully yours,

MRS. JOSEPH CONSTANCE, Rapids Park, Echo, La.

Personally appeared before me, this 15th day of July, 1911, Mrs. Joseph Constance, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

The following selections for the appointive offices of the Grand Chapter are announced:

William H. Hopper, grand chaplain; S. S. Pinney, Mt. Sterling, grand captain of the host; S. K. Veach, Carlisle, grand principal; James E. Winn, Winchester, grand royal arch captain; W. O. Rigney, Louisville, grand master of ceremonies. We sincerely hope these friends and customers will have a cash proposition that should appeal to all. M. F. SWETNAM & SON, Wilbur, Ky.

HALLOWE'E'N.

On Saturday is the eve of November 1st, or Saint's Day. It is not generally observed religiously but on the contrary as time to do your neighbor harm. Let us see if we cannot be decent this year and desist from doing anything that would hurt or annoy anybody. Marshal Ross will not give a great favor on the people of I. he would arrest and "run in" tax-fenders against law and go to jail Saturday night.

Artificially carbonated wines, 6 cents a quart on liquor cordials, and similar compounds, and proportionate rates for other quantities. Until stamps are furnished require dealers who sell to consumers to keep account of sales on and after today.

Dr. W. M. Gambill, of Blaine, called at the NEWS office Monday on his way to Louisville, where he is taking his third year of work in the dental college in that city. The young man comes of a family of physicians, but he has chosen the profession of dentistry and oral surgery. He is bright, intelligent man and will no doubt be successful in the line he has chosen.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of execution No. 2040, which issued from the office of the Lawrence Circuit Court, in favor of Dixon, Moore & Company vs. Wm. Brainard and Martha Roberts, administratrix of the estate of W. V. Roberts, deceased, for the sum of $409.93, with interest thereon from the 1st day of April, 1912; and also the sum of $9.30, costs, I, or one of my deputies, will, on the 16th day of November, 1914, offer for sale at the front door of the court house in Louisa, Lawrence county, Ky., the following described real estate, or so much thereof as will be necessary to satisfy the amount of the execution now in my hands, as above referred to, and all costs of this sale:

A certain tract of land situated on the waters of Cat Fork of Big Blaine creek, in Lawrence county, Ky., containing 63 acres, more or less, and the same land conveyed to Wm. Brainard, on the 8th day of June, 1901, by W. O. Hampton, administrator of the estate of E. O. Geiger, deceased, and his widow, Esther Geiger, said deed is of record in Deed Book 35, page 345, of the Lawrence County Court Records. Also a certain town lot, situated in the town of Louisa, Lawrence county, Kentucky, and in the Central Addition to the city of Louisa, on Lock Avenue, and is a portion of what is known as the John J. Jordan property, and adjoining the property of Frank Brown on the south, fronting on Lock Avenue. Said lot is about 36 x 120, and now occupied by Dr. Ira Wellman. Said property to be sold on a credit of six months to the highest and best bidder, purchaser will be required to give bond, with approved security, having the force and effect of a replevin bond, with lien retained upon said property to secure the payment of said bid.

Said lot is levied upon as the property of Martha Roberts, administratrix of W. V. Roberts, deceased. The sixty-three (63) acre tract of land, above referred to, is levied upon as the property of Wm. Brainard. Given under my hand this 19th day of October, 1914.
